

Aimee Kerrigan was hired by the Charlotte White Center as a Daily Living Support Service Provider in December of 2008. Aimee's background included work in residential services and community support programs; she holds a bachelor's degree in Rehabilitation Services and has her MHRT/C certification. Aimee was promoted to Director of Daily Living Support Services in November of 2009 and was hired as Director of Program Operations for the Dover-Foxcroft area in September of 2014. As Director of Program Operations, her responsibilities include supervising agency Director's, ensuring agency programs' compliance with regulatory standards, financial accountability of programs, ensuring quality of programs, and supporting, implementing, and managing operational policies.