

Cindy Freeman Cyr

Cindy has lived in Dover-Foxcroft for most of her adult life. She has worked in a variety of ways with families and children since her initial work as a child protective worker in the early 80's. She is the proud parent of her daughter, Molly Rose, who is a recent graduate of Wellesley College and currently teaching in France. Cindy serves on the Board of Selectmen in Dover-Foxcroft, the Board of Rape Response Services, the Community Advisory Committee of Maine Health Access Foundation (MEHAF), the board of the Maine Coalition to End Domestic Violence and is part of the management team of the Spruce Run-Womancare Alliance. Cindy enjoys being outdoors whether on skis or in hiking boots and is a member of the East Sangerville Grange. She is an avid fan of the Boston Red Sox, Bruins, and New England Patriots as well as the Maine Black Bears! Cindy enjoys theater and live music of many varieties and is a National Public Radio (NPR) junkie.
